SHOWJUMPING SUCCESS AT THE CABIN EC

WITH yet more mild weather, riders turned out in force for the fortnightly mid week showjumping competition on Wednesday, February 10 at The Cabin Equestrian Centre, Keithhall, Inverurie. The evening's height classes provided some great indoor jump action with local riders battling it out for the top spots.

First place in the 2ft class went to Charley Hamilton on Cherry babe with Elizabeth Milne on Jazzy J taking the 2ft 3" class. Meanwhile Melissa Buchan on Cherry Pie took first place honours in the 2ft 6" with Rosie Jones on Ulmax winning the 2ft 9" height class.

Fiona Quennell, proprietor of The Cabin EC commented:"The numbers are going back up all the time after all that snow and it's just great to see everyone back in the saddle again. The mid-week jumping competition is really popular and provides a super opportunity to get in practice over a full course before those weekend competitions."

The next Wednesday evening fortnightly unaffiliated showjumping competition is on February 24 from 5.30pm. This will be followed by a mixed unaffiliated show on Sunday, March 7 with classes from 2ft to 3ft 6" and a trophy for the show points winner. The year round British Showjumping calendar will get underway as of March 16.

Meanwhile for dressage enthusiasts, the next monthly Wednesday evening dressage competition will take place on March 31 with classes for Intro, Prelim and Novice.
