2010 EVENT SCHEDULE UNDERWAY AT THE CABIN EC

WITH the snow cleared at last, events are back on track at The Cabin Equestrian Centre, Keithhall, Inverurie marked by the hosting of the Craigie Equestrian open day on Sunday, January 17.

The Wednesday evening unaffiliated showjumping competitions resume as of Wednesday, January 27 with a 6pm start and height classes from 2ft through to 3ft, a clear round class taking place from 5.30pm. The showjumping will run fortnightly with the next dates of February 10 and 24. In addition, a mixed unaffiliated show will be held on Sunday, February 7 with classes from 2ft to 3ft 6" and a trophy for the show points winner.

Meanwhile for dressage enthusiasts, the next monthly Wednesday evening dressage competition will take place on February 3 with classes for Intro, Prelim and Novice, followed by a further competition on March 3.

Showjumping trainer Andrew Hamilton will return to The Cabin on the rescheduled date of Sunday, January 31. A new twist to a proven formula will be available in that, in addition to the popular group one hour sessions at £25, The Cabin will also offer semi private 45minutes sessions for two riders priced £37 per person. Andrew will be back at The Cabin on February 16 and 17 and, thereafter, on a monthly basis as per usual.

And the year round calendar of BSJA events resumes on the evening of Tuesday, February 23 – full details to be released shortly.

Turning to the Riding School, The Cabin Equestrian Centre is launching ladies lesson and lunch sessions plus a weekly gents only evening, open to both those riding school horses and those wishing to bring their own.
