ENTRIES EVER INCREASING AT THE CABIN EC

ENTRIES are going from strength to strength at The Cabin Equestrian Centre, Keithhall, Inverurie, from British Showjumping to unaffiliated showjumping and dressage.

The last British Showjumping show on Tuesday, June 1 drew over 50 riders from across Aberdeenshire while the mid week dressage and showjumping is attracting over 60 entries each time. The monthly unaffiliated showjumping sees well over 100 entries battling it out in height classes.

The next British Showjumping fixture is next weekend (June 19 and 20) with classes from British Novice 1.25m Open with 95cm and 1.05m Open along the way alongside Discovery and Newcomer classes. Meanwhile, the month of July sees three days of British Showjumping at the Centre on July 30, 31 and August 1. Pony classes will be included in Friday's schedule and both Saturday and Sunday will include adult Scottish HOYS Qualifiers.

Future unaffiliated dates are June 16 and 30 followed by Sunday, July 11 and Wednesday, July 14 for showjumping and Wednesday, July 7 for dressage.

And, for the first time, The Cabin Equestrian Centre will be holding a two day adult camp for local horse owners on Friday, August 13 and Saturday, August 14. Andrew Hamilton and Jean Stephen will be chief instructors in SJ and dressage respectively with Pilates tuition on hand from Pauline Kidd. The camp will culminate in a dressage and showjumping competition with instructed warm-up on the Saturday afternoon. Places are strictly limited.

Schedules for all shows are available online at www.cabinequestrian.co.uk
